Commitment to Truth and Reconciliation

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day, and in alignment with the CBE Education Plan,

Queen Elizabeth High School

acknowledges and supports the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's (TRC) Calls to Action, and makes the following commitment to action for the 2026-2027 school year:

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day, and in alignment with the CBE Education Plan, Queen Elizabeth High School acknowledges and supports the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's (TRC) Calls to Action, and makes the following commitments to action for the 2026- 2027 school year:

62.2 Educate staff on how to integrate Indigenous knowledges, languages, and teaching methods into classrooms (focus on professional learning and planning)

Actions will include:

Heart-To Belong: Support effective holistic transitions and collaboration for Indigenous students across grades and learning pathways.

(Connects to TRC Call to Action 62.3)

Mind-To Know: Offer classroom learning opportunities (e.g., residencies with Indigenous Elders, drummers, dancers, artists), in collaboration with Indigenous students, families, and/or community members.

(Connects to TRC Calls to Action 62.2, 64)
